

5D Feng Shui Consultation

Material needed prior to your consultation

Prepare a Personal Floor Plan & Bio

a. Hand-sketch your floor plan (not to scale) on letter size paper. Put each floor on a separate page. Clearly indicate the front door, label and draw each room, indicate the swing of all doors, window locations, draw all major pieces of furniture, bed (mark where you sleep on the bed), stove, desk (mark where you sit at the desk), appliances, bathrooms, etc. Label each occupant's bedroom/office. If you have a house, sketch the shape of your lot on a separate page showing location of house, driveway, garage, pool, shed, pond, creek, etc.

b. Write a short bio (overview) and date of birth. The bio should reflect what is going on in your life for the last 6 months related to health, finances, relationships, career, family, or other areas of concern, or simply state a theme and intentions you would like to work on. At the top of the bio, put your full name, address, and date of birth. Bio may be typed or handwritten.

Keep a copy of floor plan and bio for yourself to make notes and mark suggestions during the Consultation.

 Please email material at least seven days prior to your appointment.

Red Envelopes Tradition

The Red Envelopes Tradition has been passed down through the ages and is a requirement for the spiritual aspect of the Consultation. It honors the BTB (Black Hat Tantric Buddhist) Feng Shui lineage of exchanging energy and sacred information and adds your power and success to this deep wisdom.

This tradition energetically protects the “giver” of the cures and keeps the karma between you and the “cure giver” in sacred space, giving permission to enter the transcendental realm and act on your behalf, making a petition for the changes you are requesting in your life.

Red envelopes can be of any size, they can be traditional Chinese bought from Amazon, or purchased at an office or art supply store, as long as they are Red. Kindly prepare 9 Red envelopes in advance with $1 in each one. Please have them ready at the conclusion of the consultation. For “Virtual” Reds, please send $15 via Zelle, Venmo, or PayPal to: 786-262-6362 or Patsy@zenotica.com.

Terms & Conditions

For virtual sessions, payment is due at time of appointment confirmation. For an in-person consult, please have payment and Red envelopes ready at the conclusion of the assessment and allow at least two hours of uninterrupted time for the consultation. A 72-hour reschedule notice is requested. Thank you.
